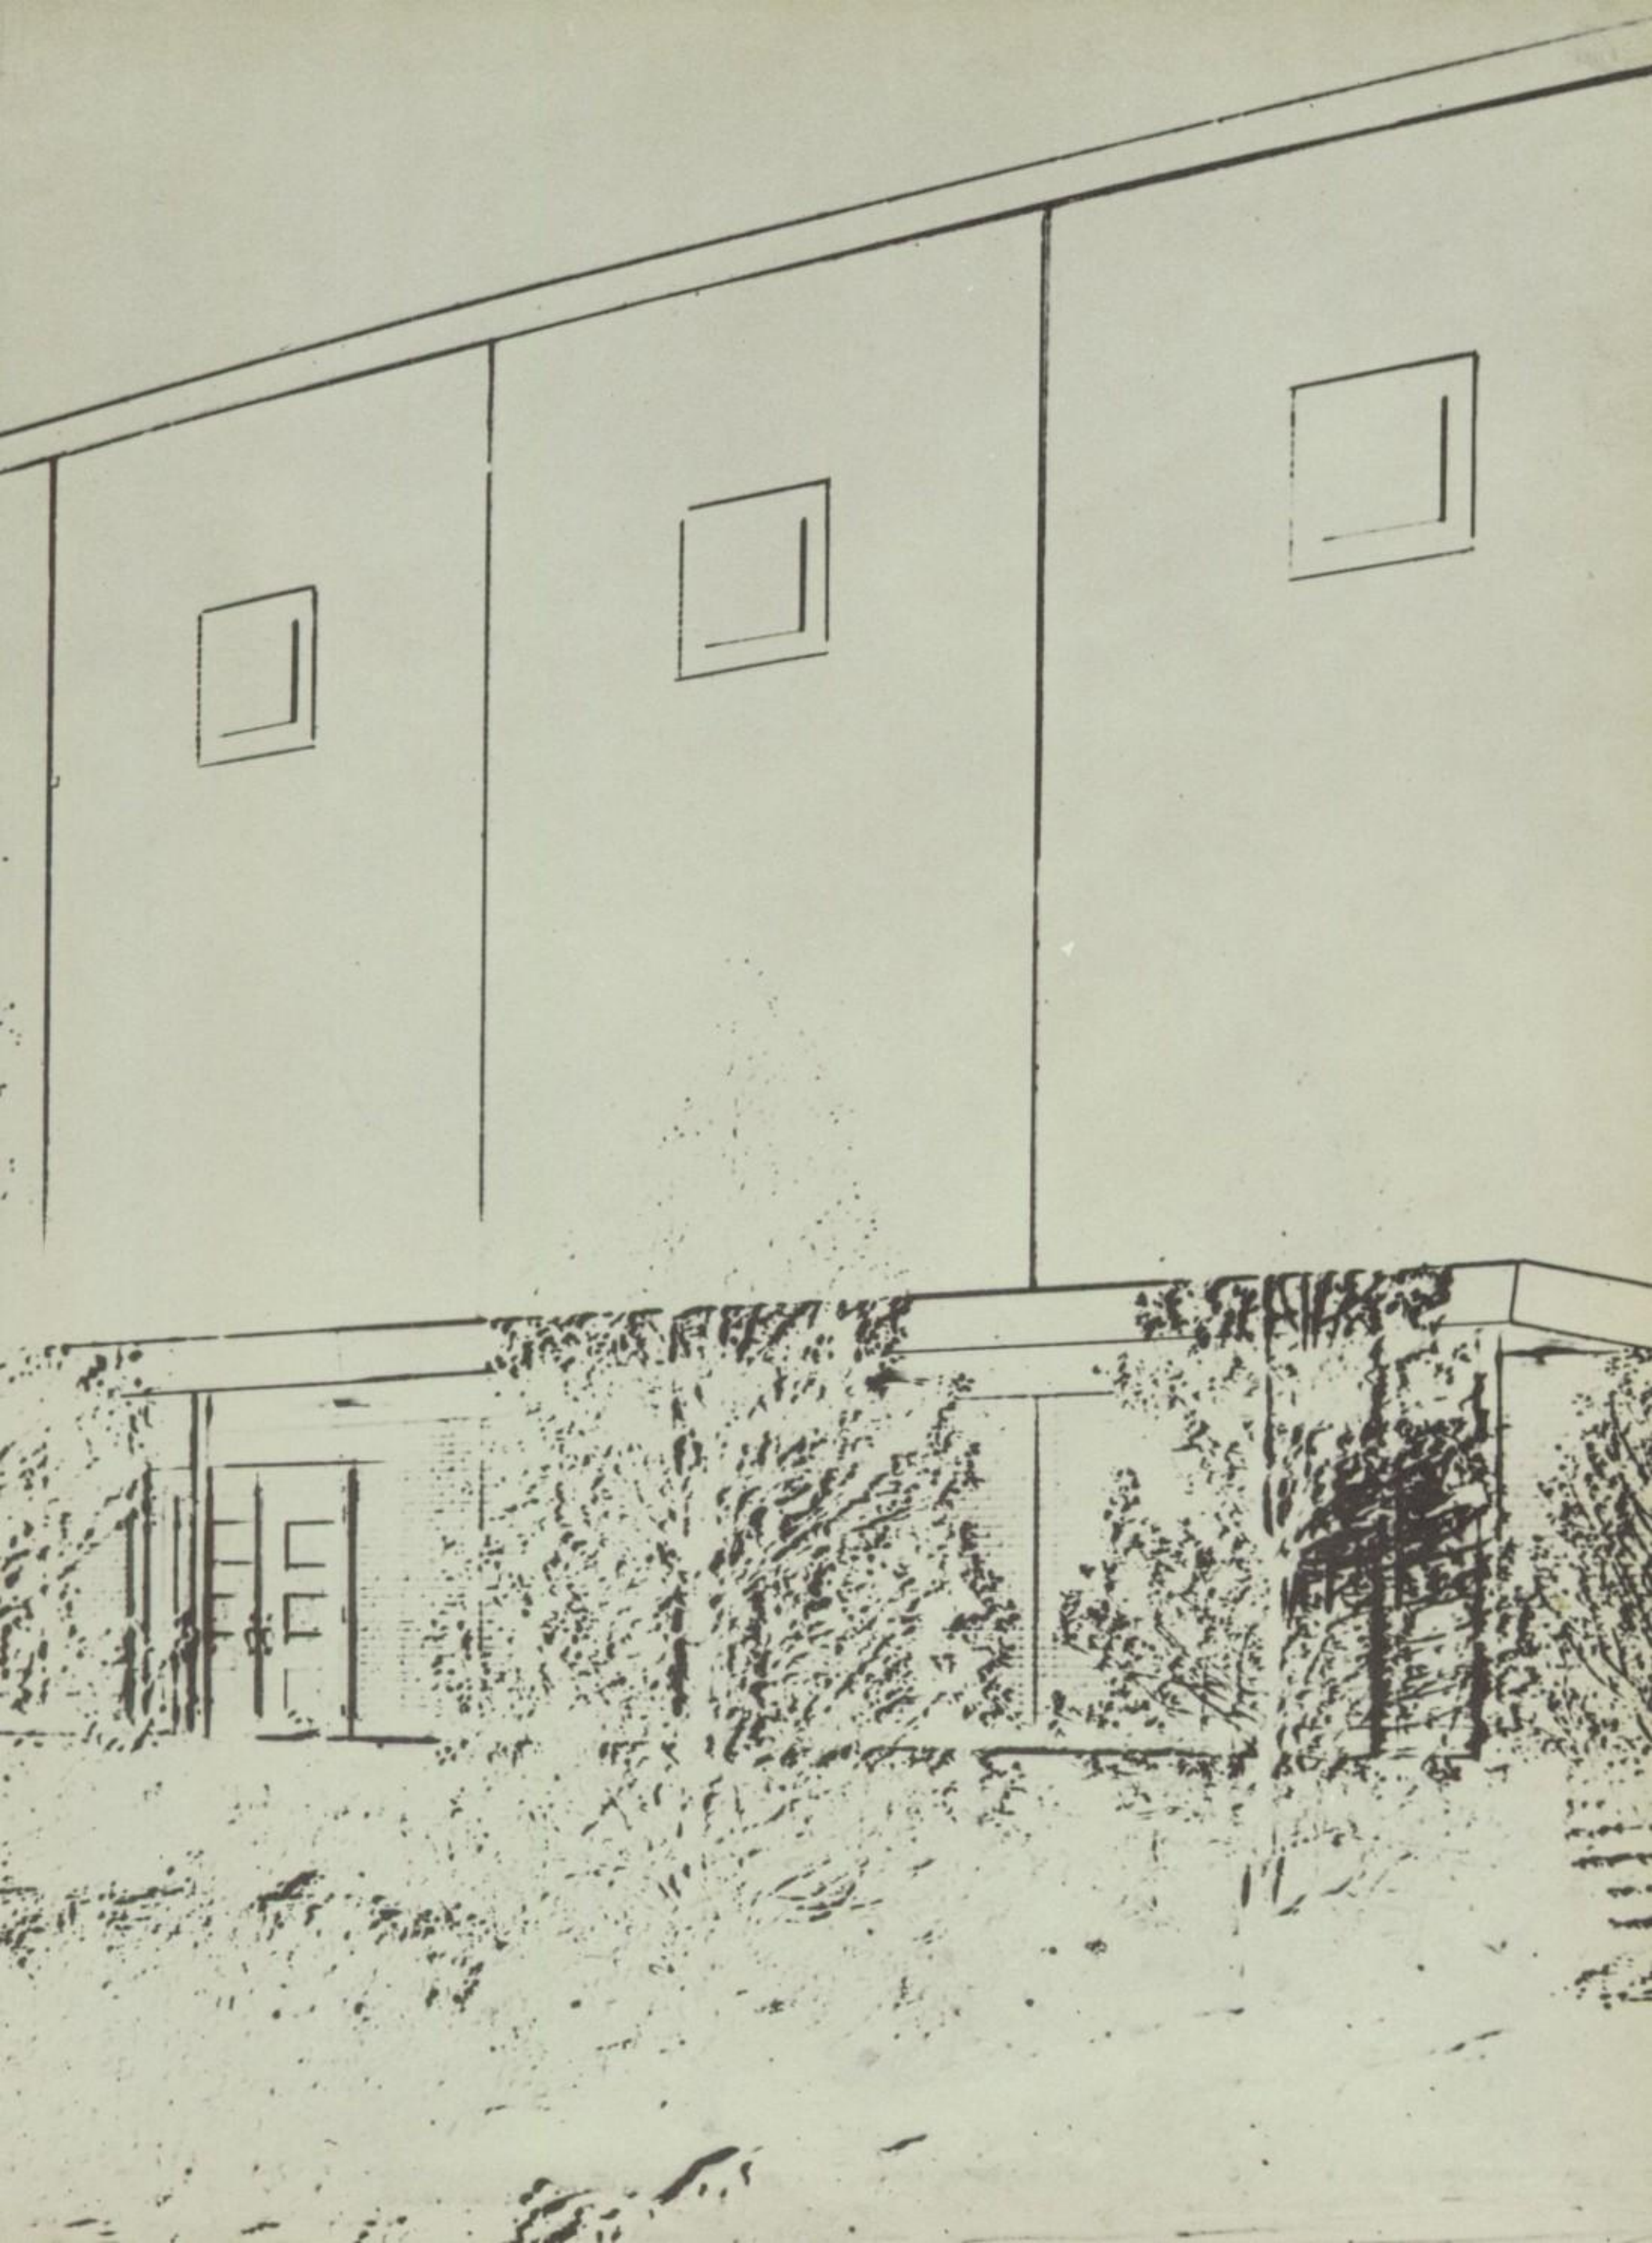
The President

1958

Maurice Moff B-213



Foreword

Your staff began the school year with one definite objective in mind—to record the complete school year in pictures. We think we have succeeded, and we feel you will agree with us.

Several innovations have been introduced with the idea of increasing your enjoyment of the book. Among these is the addition, for the first time in any President, of a touch of color here 'n there.

So, thumb through the chapters of our volume, and have as much fun browsing through it as we had putting it together.

Chapter I

MOTIVATING FORCES

"Four walls and a roof do not a school make." They do, however, serve as a starting point. These same walls may be divided into rooms, each completely furnished with the most modern equipment and teaching aids, and each filled with eager students, but until the motivating force in the person of the classroom teacher is added, there will still be just four walls and a roof.

Woodrow Wilson has been quite fortunate over the years in the high quality of its teaching personnel. This fast is fairly evident in the comparatively small turn over of qualified teachers from year to year on the local scene. Portsmouth must have a certain amount of attraction as is evidenced by the fact that so many former graduates return to make continued contributions at the scene of their undergraduate study.

A love of the profession, an interest in the welfare of youth, and a devotion to duty are ranking characteristics that all good teachers possess.

One does not have to look too far within the walls of Wilson to find evidences of these in the members of the teaching staff. Making the learning situation a meaningful one has long been a well established standard here, and as long as the Calibre of the individual classroom teacher continues on the high level of the past, that situation should remain unchanged.

The person heading up our faculty is principal R. L. Sweeney, who after 40 years of service in the Portsmouth school system has announced his retirement at the end of the present school year.

Mr. Sweeney was born September 24, 1888 in Bonham, Texas. After attending elementary and high school there, he attended the University of Texas where he received his Bachelor of Arts degree, with an intense desire to further his education, he registered at Columbia University where he received his Master of Arts degree. During his summer vacations he studied at the University of Virginia and the University of Chicago.

Since his college days he has devoted his time to education and youth. He taught in a Norfolk school, and then at Greenville County School in Emporia, Virginia. In 1918 he came to Wilson, and has remained here for forty years, teaching chemistry and physics while assuming the responsibilities of Assistant Principal. Now he is known to all of us as, "our principal."

Mr. Sweeney's greatest hobby and joy is reading. He also likes golf and traveling. Mr. and Mrs. Sweeney have taken trips to Europe, Cuba, and Texas. He is very active in the Trinity Episcopal Church and has had the honor of being a vestryman and a Junior and Senior Warden.

It is with the greatest humility and pride that we dedicate this 1958 President to Principal R. L. Sweeney, who has given so much of himself in the interest of his school, church, and community.

Chapter II

PARCHMENT PARADE

For three years we all have looked forward to the day when we finally would become Seniors, and as a result, would then be looked upon as someone special. We find, however, that conditions do not change appreciably. We are a little bit older, and we do assume more responsibilities that come with being Seniors, but down deep remains the feeling that we are only human.

Underclassmen look up to us as minor dieties; as untouchables, and unapproachables. Before this year, we seemed more like people, and less like something special.

For three years underclassmen try to follow in the Seniors' footsteps and to gain some recognition from them, even if it's just a warm, friendly smile, and a "hello" in the hall.

Underclassmen watch the Seniors anxiously at football and basketball games, at "The Circle", and all about school, wishing to enter what seems to them a magic world of Seniority.

Seniors occupy most of the higher offices of the school. They are idolized as the Editor of "The Student" and "The President", head cheerleaders, heads of the Student Council, presidents of clubs, captains of athletic teams and, in general, contribute to the backbone of the school.

Once you have stepped into the shoes of being a Senior like we have this year, idealistic dreams vanish, and we find we are no different than other students. We are only a little more experienced.

It's hard to realize that as a Senior our every move, speech, and dress will be imitated by some tenderfoot undergraduate.

Three years pass quickly, and during the fourth year without knowing it, we hand down to someone else the traits we once mimicked in those worldly Seniors.

Serving as class adviser to both Senior classes this year has been Mr. Patrick Blake. Unfortunately, due to circumstances beyond his control, he had to relinquish the advisorship to the June class this spring.

Mr. Blake was born in Stuarts Draft, Virginia, and came to Wilson as our Distributive Education Director in 1955. He has since become one of our most popular teachers.

Popularity and honors, however, seem to be nothing new to Mr. Blake, for in 1953, when he was attending Fairmont State College in West Virginia, he was selected to the National Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. In addition to this, he was named the outstanding student in his class, received the outstanding Distribution Education Award, and Outstanding Actor Award.

Mr. Blake is an extremely busy man. Besides going to school all day, he attends school at night, taking courses toward his Master's Degree, at the William and Mary Division in Norfolk. He is also very active in the Portsmouth Little Theater.

His many hobbies include reading, dramatics, radio work, listening to almost all types of music, and, of course, just relaxing with his wife and daughter, Bene Lynne. Mr. Blake loves to travel and uses his vacations for this purpose to good effect.

The June graduating class wishes to especially thank Mrs. Phyllis Byrd and Mr. Pat Riley who so ably stepped in on short notice and finished out the year as class advisers.

February Class History

Remember .....?

The "Old" Wilson High School, February, 1952? Wasn't it wonderful? As Eighth Graders, walking in those front doors, we really thought we were getting up in the world.

How busy our class was for the first few weeks. We had to study, follow a completely new schedule, meet new friends, and, of course, get lost on the average of two or three times a day.

We and the principals became good friends, because we were turned in to the office at least once a week for doing things we didn't know about to begin with.

Joe Helms, the S.C.A. President, extended a very cordial welcome to our class, but to the other students, we were just little "runts". That didn't bother us, though. We were sitting on cloud nine in seventh heaven.

Will we ever forget our first day as Freshmen? No longer were we the "babies" of Wilson. We were at last real high school students.

Now we could attend all the campaign programs and actually vote in the elections. This was an exceptionally big thrill, because all the candidates wanted our votes. Sometimes they even called us by our real names.

The school President in 1952-'53 was George Gould. We liked to believe that our votes swung that election. Also, after much campaigning and button distributing, Anne Edwards became our Homecoming Queen.

Yes, our Freshman year was great. We at last had recognition. We were students of Woodrow Wilson High.

1953-1954: that was "Victory Year". Remember how proud we were when our football team won the State Championship in Roanoke? Everything was tops that year.

The cheering squad, led by Helen Warren and Barbara Edwards, will never be forgotten.

Barbara Turner made a beautiful Homecoming Queen, and Kit Morse served the student body well as President.

This year was a swell climax to all of the fun we had at the "Old" Wilson. We hated to leave, but we really didn't have much to say about it.

The "New" Wilson High School brought many changes. Upon entering the building, our prejudiced opinions made us resent the change and look for faults (especially with the maps we were given). But, we finally had to agree that we had the most wonderful school ever.

Wilson's cafeteria, auditorium, gymnasium, shops, and classrooms were the best in this part of the state. We were proud of our school, and boasted of nothing else for many months.

Bob White was the 1954-1955 President of the S.C.A., and Brent Wickers became the President of the first Honor Council to be permanently organized here.

A petite blond, Gloria Mercer, was elected Homecoming Queen, and our Junior Varsity Basketball team won the Eastern District title with a 21-1 record.

Our wonderful high school days were slipping by fast. Before we knew it, we were UPPER CLASSMEN!

Being among the leaders of the school now, we all took on a new dignity.

Besides our school work, we had class meetings to attend, projects to work on, and numerous plans to discuss. We even elected class officers. Sammy Pope became our president, and Mrs. Wilda Oakley was our advisor. Old rose and silver were soon decided on as our class colors, and later in the year some of us worked hard, decorating the gym for the Junior-Senior Prom. The theme, "Moonlight Serenade", was beautiful.

Later in the year, we Juniors were further recognized through our individual pictures in the President. However, our high school days reached a climax when we put on our Class Rings for the first time.

This was the same year Mimi Brake was elected our Homecoming Queen; Lad Daniels was President of the S.C.A., and Willie Smith followed Brent Wickers as president of the Honor Council.

Another highlight during the year was the general election between the candidates for U.S. President, Eisenhower and Stevenson. Stevenson won, but no one is right all the time. This, of course, came about in our Mock Convention.

By all means, we can't forget Baby Day. Wasn't it fun?

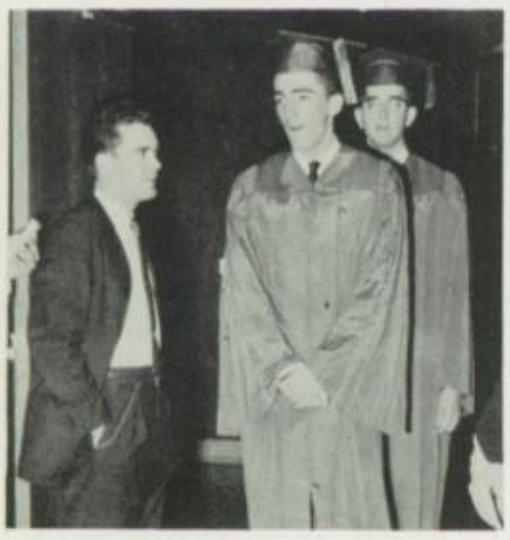
Yes, those were great days, but the best was saved 'til last.

Seniors! We could hardly believe it. We had the world in front of us, and W.W.H.S. at our feet. No class ever had a better year. We were not only successful in sports, but in everything.

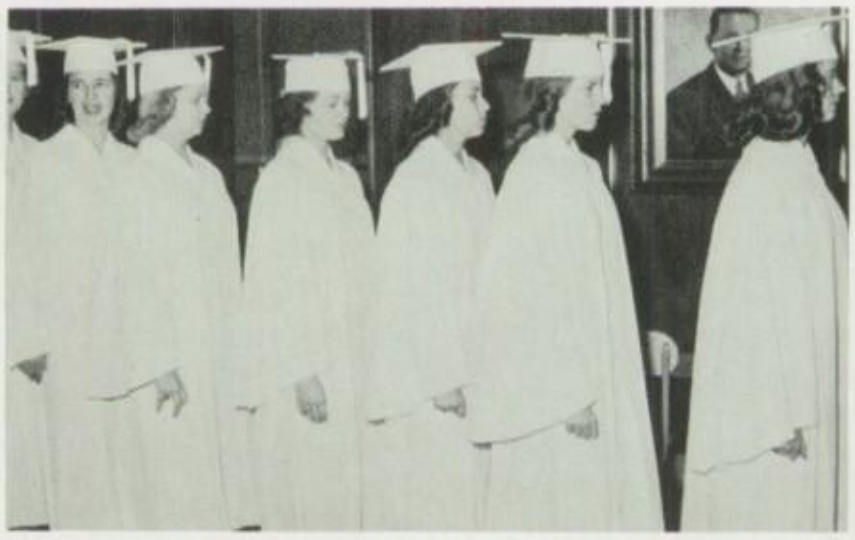
Bill Smith was tops as President of the S.C.A. Sammy Pope, with Mr. Pat Blake, our advisor, pulled our class through another year with flying colors as our President. Audrey Cherry was crowned Homecoming Queen at half-time of the first Wilson vs. Churchland football game.

If we had been busy in previous years, we were more so now. Class meetings were coming fast and furious. We had a Class Banquet and Class Play. Statistics were voted, and caps and gowns fitted.

Then came Baccalaureate and Commencement, and we were again going through doors. We were graduates of the February Class of 1958. We were leaving Woodrow Wilson behind, and with it the best years of our lives.



"Bet you'd rather be at Maury, Tommy"



"You'll soon be going down the aisle, girls"

"Don't look so serious, Betty"

February Class Prophecy

MARY JANE ARCHER, what a bird,
As a lady disc jockey, now is heard.

BOBBY THE BARBER, it has been said,
Had a man in the chair, and cut off his head.

CARL BARNES always had lawful looks.
He now carries handcuffs and chases crooks.

BARBARA BENTON, whom we all know,
Now on Broadway, steals the show.

Now where could WALTER BENTON be?
He captains a ship and sails the sea.

IRENE BIDGOOD, you just can't beat;
As a candy maker, she's awfully sweet.

FENTON BRADSHAW took a trip
From here to the moon in one big flip.

A successful man is JERRY BROWN.
As Principal of Wilson, he wears the crown.

BILL BUNTING a Cornet has;
He's really gone on modern jazz.

As a dinner speaker, MAURICE BYRD
Somehow gets in the last word.

TOMMY CAMPBELL has done quite well;
At boxing matches, he rings the bell.

FAY CARTER, in case you're ill,
Has on the market a liver pill.

DEAN himself was always the most;
He now plays the part of CASPER the ghost.

An ace in English, CAREY CLEAVES,
Now writes poetry, he believes.

JIMMY DICK has many a trick;
As a magician, he's really quick.

An original girl is ANNETTE EAVES;
She tells the future through tea leaves.

PAULA FALCONE, what a girl,
She has the U.N. in a whirl.

CHARLOTTE FLY works near and away;
She's a stewardess for T.W.A.

ERNIE GILCHRIST, a T.V. scout,
With an untalented person, had many a bout.

GARLAND GRIMES; a hawk in the field,
With the Yanks, a contract he has sealed.

PHYLLIS HARCUM, her choice she's made;
As a wife and mother, she'll well be paid.

MARVIN HARRIS, a success for his age,
Is in the White house as a page.

BETTY HARWARD made a million.
Of plaid shoe strings, she sold a billion.

Remember ERNIE? HAWKINS, I mean;
He's the most modern artist ever seen.

BEN HOUSE, admired by many,
Has had his face put on a penny.

BOB HUGELET, an adventurous boy,
Now hunts skunks and says it's a joy.

All's his for the calling, says BENNIE JONES.
He makes a living fixing phones.

What ever became of RACHEL JONES?
Archeologist, now, she searches for bones.

KENNETH PAULK, better known as "Bunn",
Has attempted ten times to get to the sun.

GLORIA PIERCE, it may be said,
Of a prospering company, is the head.

RODERICK PIERCE now runs a store.
His service is tops, you may be sure.

SAMMY POPE, our famous class Pres.,
In whatever he does, he is a success.

DOTTIE ANN SAUNDERS of baton twirling fame,
Is busily working to spread her good name.

What has JIMMY SHARPE been doing?
As cook, he always has something brewing.

Know what happened to our KENT SMACK?
He defeated the champ and won the plaque.

VIRGINIA SMITH, as a choir singer,
Deserves the fortune fate should bring her.

KITTY SWIMME would catch your eye;
She's a graduate engineer from V.P.I.

PAT TAFT has lately been
Secretary for some businessmen.

CHARLES TALIAFERRO, who was once in the gang,
Now writes for Webster, translating slang.

JERRY THORTON, come what may,
As a weathrman, predicts the day.

JIMMY TUCKER, where's he now?
He owns a farm and has a cow.

DICKIE WALDEN makes new hats,
And sells them to those teen-age cats.

A famous girl is PATRICIA KEEL;
In the U.S. Senate, she's a big wheel.

JAMES KEGLEY a success should be,
He's now an announcer on T.V.

BETSY KIRBY, smart as a whip,
Now is a famous writer of quips.

Do you remember LEWIS KIDD?
A mechanic now, he opens lids.

HAZEL LANKFORD, a red haired miss,
Was beauty queen for Sun-Kist.

PHILIP LEWIS was quite a boy.
He's just made history with a Sputnik toy.

SHIRLEY MARSHALL, where is she now?
In front of England's Queen, she bows.

BOBBY MARTIN is at last a star;
His wealth affords a Cadillac car.

BOBBY MARTINDALE, a wonderful guy,
Now is head of the F.B.I.

TOMMY McCOY, that son of a gun,
Has at last set a record with his thirteenth son.

JIMMY McLENDON you now should see
As a flourishing keeper of hives of bees.

LOLA MOREFIELD, well known to all,
Is in the Alps just having a ball.

JOE MORGAN, a talented man,
Now plays tuba in a Fireman's Band.

ARLENE PARKER, it can be shown,
As a dancer, is quite well known.

RICHARD WILLIAMSON, a funny lad,
Prevents all people from being sad.

FEBRUARY CLASS OF '58
To be a success, don't hesitate.
Accomplish all, and make a hit.
These prophesies we humbly submit.

February Class Last Will and Testament

We, the members of Wilson High School graduating class of 1957½, being of sound mind and body, do hereby solemnly bequeath the following to those whom we leave behind, to do with as they please.

I, MARY JANE ARCHER, being of sound body, though not exactly mind, do leave.

I, BOBBY BARBER, leave to Billy Sawyer my collection of jokes, my ability to lie with a straight face, and usually get away with it.

I, CARL BARNES, do hereby leave Mrs. Barbara Oliver my borrowed portable radio so she can listen to the World Series.

I, BARBARA BENTON, leave to my brother Tommy, some of my grades, and my ability to graduate in four years.

I, THEO BENTON, being of warped mind and body, do hereby leave to "Bob Knob" one slightly used gym suit, and Coach Mounie.

I, FENTON BRADSHAW, do hereby leave my favorite seat in Registration B-211 to some lucky person.

I, BILLY BUNTING, leave to Bryant Whitfield, the last remaining "Bear", the right to reorganize this grand organization.

I, MAURICE BYRD, leave this fine and beautiful high school to the younger freshmen, and hope they enjoy it as much as I have.

I, CAROLYN FAYE CARTER, do hereby leave to Johnny and Larry Swab the ability to graduate in four years.

I, JAMES DICK, do leave "What, me worry?"

I, ANNETTE EAVES, leave to my sister, Shawn all my old books, my teachers, and my ability to graduate.

I, PAULA FALCONE, leave my ability to have wonderful teachers the four years I have been in Wilson to my cousins, who will attend later.

I, CHARLOTTE FLY, leave to those coming from Harry Hunt, especially Judy Fly and Ronnie Coltes, the ability to see Mr. Allen whenever they are sent to the office.

I, ERNIE GILCHRIST, being of sound body and mind, do hereby leave Wilson for good.

I, ERNIE HAWKINS, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave Barbara Cross, in her last two years, the fun and fellowship I have had.

I, BEN HOUSE, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave to my brother Tommie, four years of joy at ol' Wilson High.

I, RACHEL JONES, being of sound mind and body, leave to Doris Prince the ability to get out of Miss Diehl's Home Management class without making a grade above C.

I, PAT KEEL, do hereby leave to Pat Collette the ability to graduate in four years, and to have as much fun as I have had.

I, LEWIS KIDD, leave my 4½ years around Wilson to "Big" John Hathaway, and my last homeroom, B-306, to anyone who wants it.

I, BETSY KIRBY, leave to Ann Gravitt the first chair in the flute section of our most noble and honorable Wilson Band, and also the 8:00 band rehearsals she has missed.

I, HAZEL ELIZABETH LANKFORD, leave to my nephew, Pete Poulson, all the good times I have had at Wilson. Also, I leave him the opportunity to share the wonderful and friendly teachers here.

I, PHILLIP LEWIS, being of sound mind and body, leave Wilson High, and to my art teacher, my ability as a "great" artist.

I, SHIRLEY MARSHALL, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave to some lucky freshman the privilege of graduating after four long years.

I, BOBBY MARTIN, will myself to any college which takes people who can't see.

I, THOMAS C. McCOY, leave to some lucky boy the privilege of being the only boy in Miss Woodhouse's (Advanced) Dramatics class.

I, LOLA MOREFIELD, leave to all freshmen the ability to graduate; to Pat Bryant I leave my brother.

I, WILLIAM JOSEPH MORGAN, being of sound mind and body (I think), do hereby leave Wilson on the second try (I hope).

I, ARLENE PARKER, leave to my sister Sandra the ability to graduate in four years, to some lucky person I leave my desk in B-211.

I, GLORIA PAGE PIERCE, leave to my cousin Barbara Holderfield, my seat in Miss Williams' Government I class, and the wonderful times I have had at Wilson.

I, RODERICK PIERCE, leave to some lucky freshman (the poor thing) my ability to graduate in 4½ years.

I, SAMMY POPE, being of sound mind and body, leave to anyone the privilege of being in the Mac Pope clique.

I, DOT SAUNDERS, do leave Beverly Bond the honor of becoming Head Majorette, and getting up at 8 o'clock for the band rehearsals.

I, BOB SHARPE, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave my cafeteria popsicle sticks to Betty.

I, KENT SMACK, hereby leave to any student, who is brave enough to face them, the Latin 7 and 8 courses.

I, ANN SMITH, leave to Frances Sharpe my ability to graduate, because without it she may never make it.

I, KITTY SWIMME, leave to my sisters, Marjo and Shirley, my desk in Mr. Galliford's 4th period Government class, and to Russell King I leave my extra credits so that he may one day graduate.

I, CHUCK TALIAFERRO, leave to Kenny Raper the ability to catch a pigeon on High Street by using a crab net.

I, PAT TAFT, leave all the good times I have had in Coach Galliford's Government classes to Linda Lee Morris. I also hope she will be able to pass.

I, JERRY THORNTON, leave my ability to receive graduating honors twice to George Church.

I, JIMMIE TUCKER, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave Mrs. Anderson the right to my school spirit.

I, RICHARD WILLIAMSON, hereby leave all my text books to any freshman, and my pass key to the locks.

June Class Remembrances

These have been prosperous years. For Wilson High and for us, the Class of '58, the past four years have been full of joy, excitement, and triumph.

Ah, to think back upon this fruitful, memorable part of our lives: in the autumn, when football was in the air and we gazed out the windows at the falling rain; winter, with its basketball games and an occasional light snow to accompany the cold winds that hit us in the morning on the way to school; spring, when the trees and grass again came to life, and boys on the track, golf and baseball teams were practicing; and, finally, summer, when every day dragged out and it seemed school would never let out. But it always did.

We can look back at these past four and beam with pride. As insignificant freshmen, our last year in the old building, we cheered ourselves hoarse as the school went all out to make that last year really something. The football team marched to the fourth state title in Wilson history, and the varsity and jayvee basketball teams added a pair of Eastern District titles. Wrestling was initiated, and spring sports made a creditable showing.

Came our sophomore year and completely new surroundings. Instead of the old, crowded building, we were in a magnificent quarter-mile long "mansion". Somebody remarked, "We'll need maps to find out where to go." Maps were supplied.

The football team was runner-up in the district, and knocked Roanoke out of the state title on Thanksgiving Day. Norview High started that year on its winning streak, edging by us, 14-6. A one-point, overtime loss to state champion Newport News in the Eastern District tournament cost us a repeat basketball title. Wrestling showed great improvement and the baseball team wound up second in the district with a 19-2 record.

Finally, at last, we crawled out of the ranks of the underclassmen and took our place as juniors. Again the sun shone on us, and everything was geared for another bright year. A powerful gridiron aggregation snatched runner-up honors in the district and third place in the state. We lost only to district titlist Norview, 6-0, and state champs W-L, 14-12. Norview rolled on. Next came basketball and, regrettably, Newport News, to whom, once again, we were runner-ups. For the second successive year, Wilson was the only team to beat the Typhoon, which again copped the state title. A winning season for the wrestlers and spring once again brought the usual fine results, though no titles.

The big year! At last, we made the top rung of the ladder—seniors! We thought we'd somehow be special, but the underclassmen didn't think so, and the teachers didn't let up a bit. There was only the significance that this was our final year.

The football team went undefeated until the last game, and we knocked off four unbeaten teams in the process. Our third victim was the one we wanted most—Norview. We sure did blast that 22-game winning streak, 27-7!

It's really too bad that we had to send this in so early, but if everything went as pre-season predictions figured they'd go, then that Wilson Winning Habit was not broken.

Those were all the big things we remember. But, what really fills out our high school picture are the little things, the activities other than just football and basketball, and the sports.

Like the Circle, for instance, or the Dixie, or Rodman's, whichever you liked best. There we gathered after the games and on other nights to get together over a good snack.

And who can forget the influence the clubs had on us? Many were the afternoons spent at club meetings, unless we worked under the D. O. or D. E. programs. Even then, they were clubs, too.

Open house . . . College Day . . . the assemblies . . . the pep rallies, where gathered the faithful few . . . Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y meetings, all mean an awful lot to us.

Homecoming is noted for the football games, true. But wasn't something special added with the last-minute, frustrated work on the floats for the parade? Prize-winner or not, we had fun.

Intramurals . . . rehearsing lines for the 3-act play . . . "senior statistics" . . . science fairs . . . study periods . . . library . . . cafeteria "rat races" . . . football banquet, they all come to mind.

Mrs. Brady's streak of district debate champions over the last nine straight years, and a host of state champs in the other phases of forensics, form another part of the truly complete picture.

Final exams, and the necessary "cramming" . . . Baby Day, with all its gayness and tomfoolery — and water pistols . . . all types of conventions . . . A. A. Cards . . . distribution of "The Student" . . . class pictures . . . "fire drill!" . . . Yes, Mr. Galliford . . . mock elections . . . Tribble's . . . S. C. A. and Homecoming elections . . . bus rides, and more come to mind.

What would we have done without our marching band, majorettes, sextette, and, of course, our hard-working cheerleaders, both varsity and jayvee.

Putting up "Maul Maury" signs . . . decorating the goalposts . . . band performances . . . stage crew . . . monogram club vs. faculty . . . "sessions" in the general office . . . counselling . . . Yes, Mr. Galliford . . . for our athletes long, long hours of hard practice to give us the many victories we've had to cheer about . . . chatting in the halls . . . phys. ed., home ec., Gov't., Pub. Spk., and the list piles up.

We were taught to play football by Coach Mills, to play basketball by Coach Ryder and to think by Coach Galliford, our greatest lesson. And we were taught a myriad of other things by a host of helpful teachers. Some lessons came easy, others didn't. Sometimes we gave the teachers trouble, sometimes they gave us trouble, but we learned and we got to like it. Now we must leave it.

We, the Class of '58, stand at the culmination of our high school careers. Soon the diplomas will be handed us, and we shall "depart from these ivy-covered walls and go out to face the stark realities of life", whether in college or in work.

If life on our own is to be anything like the bountiful four years we have had at Wilson, then, unquestionably, there are prosperous years to come.

"We'll also remember the few wonderful snowfalls we had."

June Class Prophecy

Everybody has a secret ambition. The members of the Class of '58 were asked to write their own prophecies, based on their "innermost desires," about what they want to accomplish after graduation. Let's keep a close look and see how near some of them come to realizing their secret ambitions.

WINIFRED JACKSON: "To become a nurse, get married, go to Hawaii, then to live on a quiet beach somewhere."

NANCY ANDREWS: "After making my first three million, I hope to be administering to the sick in the hospital I am going to build."

HARVIE AKERS: "Mine is to make a success of myself in life."

JAMES SHNEER: "To become a nuclear physicist."

REGGIE HUGHES: "To be a millionaire lawyer who has never lost a case."

MARTHA WEBB: "To own a big clothing store and have all the clothes I want, and to supply Anne Barber with large sweaters."

JESSIE AKERS: "To outstare Yul Brynner—in person."

GUS ARMSTRONG: "To be a chemical engineer and to hunt in the Rockies."

JACK ASHCROFT: "To become the owner of the largest fishing fleet in the Atlantic."

MARTHA QUILLIN: "To travel all over the country as a playgirl."

ROSEMARY DILLON: 'To be the captain of the first Sputnik to land on the moon."

JUDY MILLER: "To marry a millionaire and settle down to raise a family of three boys and three girls.

PAT NUCKOLS: "To become Jack's wife and live happily ever after."

IRENE BIDGOOD: "I would like, 25 years from now, to be thinking about retiring from the job of telephone operator."

PAT WILSON: "To be a cook in a hotel that has branches all over the world, so I could change jobs and travel at the hotel's expense."

LINDA LEE MORRIS: "To go to Chicago—I'll never tell why!"

NANCY SHRINER: "To become a good housewife and mother."

ALICE JANE TONKIN: "To be a successful mother and housewife.'

JESSIE SCOTT: "To be a cowgirl and join a certain cowboy in Texas."

MERCER MacPHERSON: "I would like to be a traveling Nomad, going into 'unknown' areas and living a dangerous life."

RANDY McDANIEL: "I have a secret ambition to become a state trooper and patrol the highways with my whammy, and throw all teenage rods in the pokey."

A. L. HOLLAND: "I have a secret ambition to be the teenage rod that State Trooper McDaniel is going to throw in the pokey."

CARL WOODARD: "I have a secret ambition to be the pokey keeper in which teenage rod Holland is thrown by State Trooper McDaniel."

BETTIE ST. CLAIR: "I would like to be a giggling psychiatrist and make all patients happy."

MONTY WILLIAMS: "To become a millionaire, go to Texas and become a cattle rustler, and then kill Matt Dillon."

BARBARA REYNOLDS: "To become a brain surgeon so that I can operate on some of the nuts that attend Wilson, my 'friends'."

SUE ROWE: "To be a cowgirl so I could marry a cowboy."

BARBARA MUTTER: "I always wanted to be a lawyer so I could get my 'nice' friends out of jail."

CAROLYN GARTMAN: "I've always aspired to own a cat-gut factory so I could supply Carol Smith with strings for her violin."

ROBERT LeDOYEN: "To take Gorgeous George's place in professional wrestling."

MARGIE CARROLL: "To be a great singer."

ANNE RAY LIGGON: "To graduate from the College of William and Mary and become a nuclear physicist.",

RUSTY WAYLAND: "To be a horse doctor 25 years from now."

CAROLE COLEMAN: "I'd like to be an All-Southern tackle."

RICHARD WESTBROOK: "To eventually defeat Zorro in a gentleman's duel."

CLARENCE DELLINGER: "To graduate and, through some honest way, make a million dollars."

BILLY BAUGHAM: "My ambition is to really contribute something to make people happier, no matter where I may go, or what I may do."

BRENDA JOHNSTON: "To be a success in all that I may do, namely as a private secretary and housewife; also, to travel to India and Switzerland."

JOAN KNICK: "To be the first woman president of Texas."

SANDRA LEIGH MAYO: "To travel around the world in eighty days in my own private Sputnik."

PHYLLIS OAKLEY: "To be a medical secretary, and marry the doctor.

BETSY TURNER: "To be an archaeologist."

PATRICIA JENNINGS: "To own a ranch and raise thoroughbred horses."

CAROL FULCHER: "To have a modern home in the tropics, work as a commercial artist, and have a hobby of skin-diving."

CONNIE HERRING: "To be the moon's first Florence Nightingale and take care of newborn space babies."

CLAUDIA TUREMAN: "To be a secretary in Hollywood and take dictation while sitting on my boss's knee."

ANNE BARBER: "To be a scientist dealing with outer space."

GAIL BURNELL: "To be the first lady president of Merchants and Farmers Bank."

SANDRA TURMAN: "To be a good secretary, have a good job, get married, and build a beautiful home."

JUDY NEMEROFF: "Mine is to graduate from college, get married and have twins."

DONNA HELWIG: "To be an airline stewardess and fly to Hawaiii."

VINCENT BRODA: "To be a flagpole sitter."

PECK HOFLER: "I'd like to own a swanky night club in New York City."

EDDIE HAYNES: "I want to be head waiter in Peck Hofler's night club; also, a Faro dealer on the side."

BOBBY LIPSCOMB: "I want to be the bouncer in Peck Hofler's night club."

CAROLYN HYDE: "My greatest ambition is to be a brain surgeon, also find a way to transfer the brains of almost dead people to the heads of people whose brains have been damaged."

VIRGINIA GARRENTON: "To graduate from East Carolina and become one of America's most popular millionaire play-girls."

MARY CORNELL: "To graduate from Hollins College with an "A" average, become America's most famous psychologist, and go on the first rocket to Mars for the purpose of analyzing those 'little green men'."

SANDRA CLEAVER: "To be a motorcycle policeman, or a bacteriologist."

MARY BURKE REID: "To be a physical therapist, and later get married."

BEVERLY DUNCAN: "To be the greatest ballerina ever."

PATTI HAYES: "My two secret ambitions are to be an elephant trainer, and a ballet dancer."

JUANITA KEYES: "To own an ocean liner, with nothing but male passengers."

CAROL BOYD: "To be a ballet dancer, or to teach dancing."

VIVIAN LESTER: "To be a Rockette at Radio City in New York, and marry a millionaire."

MILLIE RODEFER: "To be the captain of a submarine."

CHRIS MARTIN: "To be a reporter for a newspaper."

PAT DAWSON: "To be the first woman presdient of the United States."

WANDA WINERBARGER: "To be a doctor."

RALPH HUNT: "To be the radio man on the first man-sized space ship to reach Alpha Centauri."

LOUIS LAMBERT: "To be spaceshipman, first class, on the first spaceship to reach the sun. It'll be the hottest trip yet."

THOM THARIN: "To make loads of money."

JAMES STONE: "To be a door-to-door salesman on Venus."

RUTH LEE REVERE: "To be a private secretary, and later marry Kenny."

KENNY WIMBROUGH: "To own a farm, and raise horses.

JUNE LONG: "To have a million dollars, and own a green Jaguar."

WESLEY McENTIRE: "To be a voodoo witch doctor in the deep, dark jungles of Africa."

MAX WHITE: "To be a millionaire playboy and own half of Monte Carlo, New York and Hollywood."

BINFORD HARRELL: "To become an automotive designer for General Motors and design the most beautiful car ever."

BERT GARRISON: "I'd like to go to the moon on the very first flight, and also be commander of a space station."

BOB SMITH: "To take a rifle and plenty of ammunition and go live in Dismal Swamp.

BILL SMITH: "To be a great man like Geronimo and free the Indian from the yoke that was placed upon him by the white man."

CARLENE GEORGE: "To have different outfits to wear to last for a whole year."

GRACE WINDSOR: "To become the wife of a certain boy, have about three children, and live happily ever after."

MAMIE NEVILLE: "To be a competent secretary in a large business concern."

JOYCE RODMAN: "To be a doctor's wife, and to raise 12 children in a million dollar mansion."

SANDRA PARKER: "To go to work, get married, and have a nice family."

June Class Last Will and Testament

We, the members of the Wilson High School Class of '58, being of sound mind and body, do hereby solemnly bequeath to those we leave behind the following, to do with as they please.

I, VIVIAN ADAMS, leave to any person lucky enough, to have "Ma'" Curlee for home room for four years.

I, HARVIE LEE AKERS, JR., do hereby leave W. W. H. S. in the good hands of T. L. J., hoping he will take good care of it.

I, JESSIE LEE AKERS, being of sound (?) mind and body, do hereby leave all the Happy Harry Hunters all the wonderful Wilson teachers.

I, JEANNE ALEXANDER, being on the verge of mental and physical collapse, do hereby leave to Marian Harrell the sweet sorrow of being repeatedly whacked on the feet playing field hockey with Mrs. Byrd, thus gaining the nickname "Crip". I also leave my highly developed talent for being late to her.

I, ANN VIRGINIA ALLEN, leave to my brother, Robert Wilson "Hucky" Allen, Jr., the rare privilege of having Miss Dashiell for four years of homeroom, and also I leave all the trials and tribulations of being the "P.K."

I, NANCY ANDREWS, being "all shook up", do will and bequeath to Jean Marriner my seat in the Senior Class, and to Mr. Dake, one considerably quieter registration.

I, DELIAAN ANGEL, a sound being of mind and body, leave my ability of living life, pursuing happiness, and, regretfully, getting caught to everyone at Wilson.

I, JANRAE ARCHER, leave Bill Spears the ability to pass English.

I, LEWIS ARMISTEAD, leave nothing. I'm taking it with me.

I, GUS ARMSTRONG, being of sound body, leave all jokes, all wisecracks, and all clean gym clothes to Coach Strawn.

I, JACK EDWARD ASHCROFT, leave to James Brooks the opportunity to graduate one of these years.

I, TOMMY "DO DIRTY" BAKER, being of sound mind and large body, do hereby leave to some small, unfortunate freshman my large seat in B-219. To Red "Pee Wee" Atkins I leave my ability to graduate in four years.

I, ANNE LA VON BARBER, leave to my brothers, George and A. T. the "many funs" of high school life; and to some lucky girl, the privilege of being president of the W. W. Tri-Hi-Y and attending Girls' State.

I, KENNY "KENRO" BARNES, do hereby leave to Gail Hartley all my senior books, hoping that she will use them more than I did.

I, RICHARD BARTLETT, being of sound mind leave to Butch Beale what my lack of ability kept me from getting . . . good grades.

I, BILLY BAUGHAM, hereby leave this school, Woodrow Wilson, to the upcoming students to make it a better place in which to learn.

I, IRENE BIDGOOD, being completely confused, do hereby leave to my beloved English teacher the one senior theme on baby care and the (cherished?) memory of having been one of the few teachers who have taught a mother.

I, LEON BERNARD, do hereby leave my hip boots and long red flannel (ivy league) underwear to Mr. Pat Blake.

I, JANET BIBB, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave to Coach Wild the privilege of teaching Claudia to drive, the last of the Bibb's.

I, LINA BLACK, being in a total state of confusion, do gladly leave.

I, BRENDA BLOXSOM, leave to Patsy Sharrett the ability to hold down the end position on the cheering squad, to the "Fearless Five" I leave all the wonderful times we've had together, and to some poor skinny freshman, I leave my many extra pounds.

I, BEVERLY BOND, do leave to all future band members the honor of having "Cousin" to guide them, and to Rosie and Jeanette the thrill of being head majorette.

I, CAROL JOYCE BOYD, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave some lucky freshman my seat in B-310, and to Allan Boyd and Bobbie Perry all the wonderful memories of Wilson High.

I, SHELBY BOYD, do leave to any poor person who is dumb enough to take Shorthand 3, the ability to fail as many transcriptions a term as I have.

I, SANDRA BRADY, leave to my brother, Harvey, the ability to graduate within the next three years; also, my seat in the D. O. class to anyone fortunate enough to take the course.

I, ANN BRITTON, do hereby leave to my sister Betty four wonderful years at Wilson, and the opportunity to graduate in four years.

I, VINCENT BRODA, do hereby leave Wilson High with all the pleasant memories I have had in the past years. To my brother Richard I bequeath the opportunity of being used in the testing of wires in Mr. White's Electric Shop.

I, BRENDA BROWNLEE, being of sound mind and body, do leave to my sister one football captain and to Linda Keller the many secrets of "The Four".

I, BILL BRYANT, do bequeath to some sincere, energetic freshman the curse of having to attend Wilson, and the uncontrollable ability to amass as many enemies as I have. To the student body I leave the indelible imprint of my glorious infamy; to the principals and faculty, the injustices I have suffered and their knives; to Mr. Galliford, my Great Law of Ctuzelawis and the desire that he may someday find another who agreed with him wholeheartedly; to some basketball spectator, the honor of starting an argument that Charles Ricks' successor will finish that will win the game.

I, BILLY BUELL, being of sound mind (?), do leave to Barbara my last name. To all the freshmen I leave the ability to get good hubcaps, mirrors, seat covers and chrome door locks.

I, GAIL BURNELL, being of sound mind and body, leave to all freshmen the ability to graduate with exactly 16 credits.

I, VIRGINIA BUTLER, do hereby leave to all freshmen the honor of becoming a senior and all the fun that goes with it.

I, BILLY COBB, leave to my brother Freddy my seat in Mr. Allen's office.

I, MARIAN COHEN, do bequeath to Sue Mason my ability to change clothes with Millie in the men's room at the Y, during a D. E. meeting. Also, I leave Mrs. Johnson any left-handed student who can write back-handed and read it.

I, CAROLE COLEMAN, leave to some lucky freshman, the privilege of having Miss Dashiell for homeroom for four years and to Mrs. Byrd one hockey stick and one pair of shin guards; also, to some unsuspecting individual, my job of making calls for Miss Woodhouse.

I, MICKEY COLLINS, do hereby leave to any student at Wilson who has that run-down feeling my one and only good humor book (American Gov't.). Boy, you'll need some good humor.

I, MARY CORNELL, being of sound mind and body, leave to Helen Brewer my favorite seat in Miss Vincent's Vergil class. May her days be filled with: "Equo ne credite, Teucri. Quidquid id est, timeo Danaos et dona ferentis."

I, ELAINE CRAWFORD, leave to Brantley the ability to graduate in three years.

I, BILL CREECY, do leave to any student the wonderful privilege of having Miss Dashiell for homeroom, and to John Hathaway the ability to make out with "Tank".

I, LINDA CRONE, being of extra sound mind (solid rock) after four years in the great brain factory, do hereby leave with no regrets.

I, BETTY JANE CROSS, being of sound mind and body do hereby leave all of Wilson High School to Jerry Cross and Phyllis Franklin, to do with as they please.

I, NED CROSS, do hereby leave the Christmas wrestling practice to the next boy in my weight class.

I, RAY CURLING, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave to Joe Koon my empty locker. I leave to Sandra Smith my seat in the Senior Class and to Marty Brennaman the ability to be quiet in study period.

I, PAT DAWSON, being of sound (?) mind and body, do hereby bequeath to Claudia (Tootie) Bibb the privilege of being called "Airy" after a football game.

I, ROSEMARY DILLON, do hereby leave one sister haunting the halls of Wilson, and to any lucky girl who likes to talk, my seat in Coach Galliford's government class.

I, PAT DIXON, leave to some lucky freshman the honor of being in Mrs. Curlee's homeroom for four years.

I, BOBBY DRIGGS, do hereby leave to Miss Shafer my seat in B-111, and to the freshmen the ability to enjoy four years at Wilson.

I, RUTH DRATLER, leave to Miss Brent four more years with another Dratler, and to my sister Bonnie, two combination locks that work and the ability (that I never had) to get to classes on time.

I, EVELYN DUKE, leave all my nicknames to any girl who deserves them, and to Jackie Drake the title "Champ".

I, BEVERLY DUNCAN, being of sound mind, do hereby leave to some lucky freshman my seat in Miss Dashiell's homeroom. To Bobbie Perry I leave my ability to have a "great time" in high school.

I, GERALD ELLIS, being of sound mind and body and shot nerves, leave to any lucky person my ability to take geometry over and over again and still not know what it's all about.

I, JERRY ENNIS, hereby leave my old shoes to my buddy Jerry Ferrell.

I, ALICE EPSTEIN, leave to my brother Edwin all the wonderful experiences that I have had at Wilson. My sincerest congratulations also to anyone who can win an argument with Coach Galliford.

I, DORIS EPSTEIN, hereby leave to Robert Snyder all the wonderful experiences I have had at Wilson.

PROGRESSING TOWARD A DIPLOMA

The basic purpose of any school is instruction, and failure to place this objective at the head of the list can only mean that the individual is being deprived of his rightful heritage.

Woodrow Wilson is a basic institution of instruction, both from the standpoint of faculty and variety of its curriculum. The student who fails to learn has only his own lack of interest and effort to blame. We live in a society made up of complex individuals and personalities, and in order to fit into the pattern, it is necessary to be exposed to certain required studies. Because of this, these subjects become a part of any course of study.

Wilson has such requirements. Fortunately, much more is offered. Whether a person is anxious to broaden and improve his mind, or become more proficient in the use of his hands, the opportunities are always present in the study of academic subjects or the well-equipped shops in the vocational department. Wilson offers such wide facilities that no school day should ever be a total loss to any individual.

In order to keep up with progress in a scientific age, more emphasis is being placed on the study of the physical sciences for those who are able to assimilate the facts. Recognizing the fact that all students are not scientifically minded, the administration is not overlooking the academic field. Two new subjects were added to the curriculum during the past year, Creative Writing and Psychology.

The great variety of the curriculum, and the manner in which all courses are presented both emphasize one important fact—Woodrow Wilson is primarily a place of, and a place for, instruction.

Representative of our faculty is Mrs. Barbara Oliver. We are equally proud of our entire teaching staff, and selected Mrs. Oliver because of her close connection with the Junior Class.

She was born in Fairmont, W. Va., and has lived in Portsmouth since moving here in 1937. She has one sister, and both are graduates of Woodrow Wilson. Mrs. Oliver attended William and Mary, both at the Division of Norfolk and in Williamsburg, where she received her degree. She majored in history, and returned to her alma mater, Wilson, as a member of the faculty in 1953. She has been teaching here since.

Mrs. Oliver has several hobbies in which she is quite interested. These include music of any kind, teaching, people in general, and sports. The last mentioned is one of her favorites, and she and her husband attend practically all Wilson games, where they may be seen cheering on the Presidents as loudly as the most rabid fans around them.

For several years she served as adviser to the Quill and Scroll, a national honorary society for writers, and was actively engaged in directing the destinies of the Junior Class as adviser during the past school year. She has thoroughly enjoyed the work with her classes and organizations, and they in turn, have benefited from their associations with Mrs. Barbara Oliver.

Chapter IV

WHEN THE GAVEL STRIKES

"The meeting will please come to order." This familiar phrase is repeated over and over hundreds of times during the course of a school year. It is simply more evidence of the fact that opportunities are present outside of the classroom for the individual to become a "more rounded person."

One only needs to page through carefully the section that follows to see that there is a broad selection of clubs and organizations to satisfy the tastes of even the most discriminating individual. If, somewhere along the line, no respondent note is struck, the fault lies within the person himself. Again, the opportunity is present, waiting the active participation of anyone interested enough to take advantage of it.

Those that do avail themselves of active participation soon find out one's horizons do suddenly broaden out and become more meaningful. The numerous opportunities to exchange ideas; to learn parliamentary procedure; to participate in worth-while projects; to "just belong" to a group—all under wise and able leadership—will benefit anyone willing to give a little part of himself in return.

"Help any organization grow, and you will feel just a little bit bigger as a result."

When it comes to organizing we have one of the best in the person of Mr. Paul Brown, band director Chairman of the Athletic Association, and general handyman.

Mr. Brown was born in Eubona, Illinois, and came to Wilson in 1936. His musical background is a highly respectable one, including study at the University of Illinois, New England Conservatory, and William and Mary, Norfolk Division. He is an excellent tuba player, an instrument which he played in the Firestone and Miami Symphony Orchestras. In addition, he was national tuba playing champion for several years.

Away from Wilson, where his average work day lasts from 8:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m., Mr. Brown spends a great deal of his time listening to records and participating in musical activities. He also enjoys camping, foreign cars, and helping the youth of Portsmouth. Speaking of youth, Mr. Brown is married, and thoroughly enjoys all family activities with his wife and three children, two boys and one girl.

As Staff Sergeant Brown of the Air Force he was stationed at Miami Beach, where he directed the Band Training School for the Air Force Training Center. About 600 bandsmen trained there for service in band units around the world. While studying in Massachusetts he directed bands for Salem and Beverly High Schools.

The future of organizations at Wilson will always be assured as long as we have individuals with the ability and interest shown by Mr. Paul Brown.

Pan-American League

This year the Pan-American League has been very active, having had a number of interesting programs and fiestas. Our "Fiesta de Navidad," held in December, was the climax of our fall semester. In the spring we presented a play, "Senor Freedom," to our student body, and later to the Pan-American League of Granby High School, Norfolk, Virginia, after which a reception was held in the patio of our school.

A group of us attended the Pan-American Day Program at Granby High School, where we had an opportunity to exchange ideas about planning and conducting our meetings.

The members of our League, as well as those of the Granby League, felt that studying Spanish has been helpful in giving us a better understanding of the youth of the Americas. We also realize the many opportunities in engineering, business administration, and other fields that are open to persons who speak Spanish.

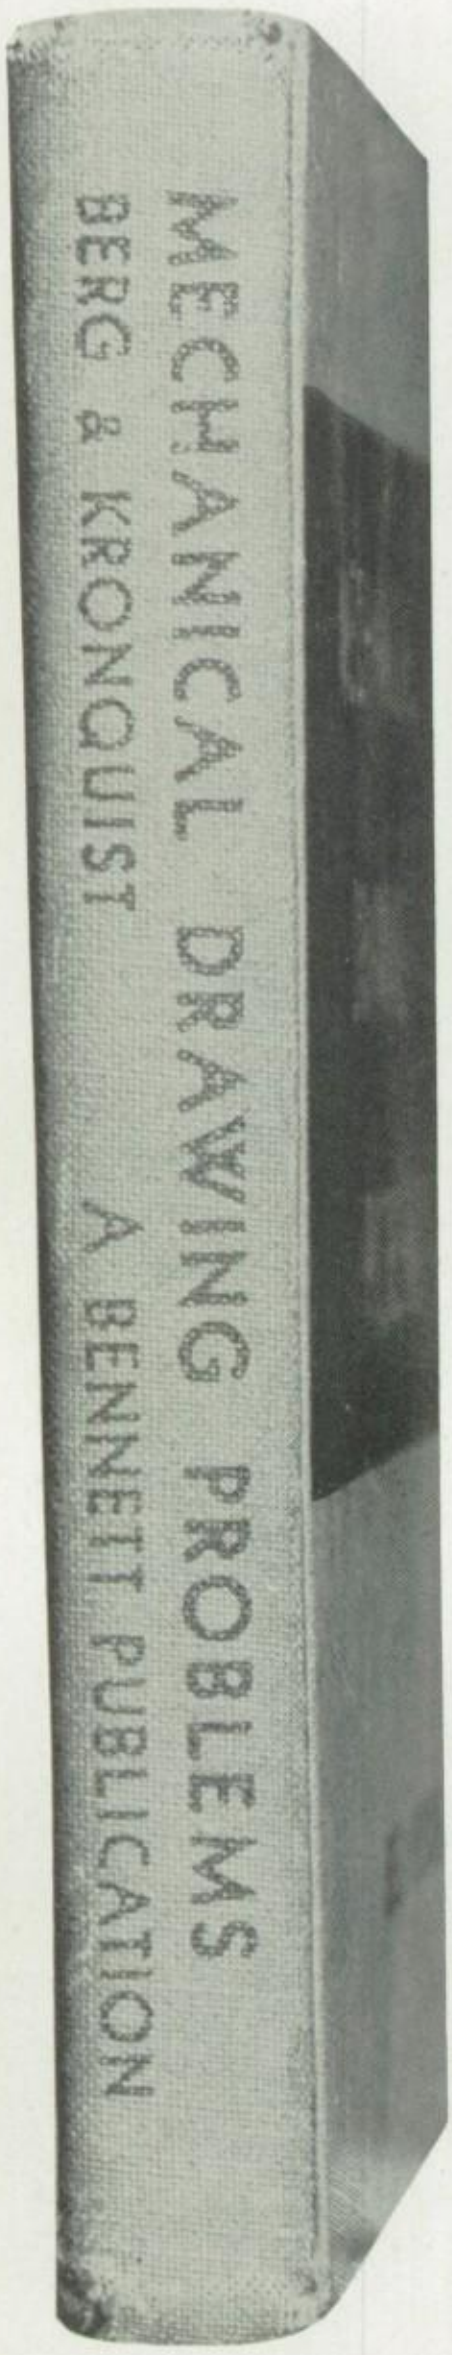
Chapter V



SPOTLIGHTING PREXIE PRODUCTIONS

"All work and no play, make Jack a dull boy!" In the spirit of this saying, everything is not all work during the year. It is a fact that during each school year the student body has a number of opportunities to participate, either actively or passively, in a variety of events designed to take one's mind off the responsibilities of the classroom.

It seems that the school year is no sooner under way when, suddenly, all thoughts are turned to Homecoming. That means the selection of a queen and her court, the planning and hurried preparations of a float, the big parade, the game, and the big moment when the queen is officially crowned by Principal R. L. Sweeney. The school year is, indeed, well under way.

These events have hardly had a chance to become memories when it is time once more for the Thespians to display their talents in the annual Dramatic Club production. Even before the excitement of rehearsals end, the actual production itself has subsided, the spirit of Christmas descends on the student body. Rooms are gayly decorated, and the climax reached with the Mixed Chorus Assembly.

Other highlights follow in surprisingly fast order: music festivals, three one-act plays, science fair, forensics, college day, and open house. Occasionally, an event not anticipated will suddenly appear, and the school year becomes a fuller and richer one as a result.

If Jack, in the quotation above, is a dull boy, it is not because he has had no opportunity for play at Woodrow Wilson.

Wilson and the whole community suffered a tremendous loss in the passing of Mr. Lylse C. Padden last January. What does one say on such an occasion. Perhaps Mr. Pat Riley best expressed all our feelings in the Eulogy which he wrote for The Student.

"In the dark, shadowy world of uncertainty, inhabited by terrible youthful problems, one man held a candle. The monstrous problems disappeared as this man burnt away their hideous mask of confusion and irresolution, and exposed the simple answer that lay beneath.

When teachers and administrators had their vision clouded by doubts and questions, they sought this man. Sight was inevitably restored as the light from his candle penetrated the core of the difficulty.

Parents often faced obstacles whose tops towered out of sight. This man with the candle had but to appear to reveal in a formerly shadow-shrouded corner an accessible ladder leading over the obstacle.

The man was an educator, and he lived his lecture. He gave the breath of his life to living Christ's lecture, "So let your light shine before men." Now the man with the candle has gone to join Him whose light he reflected.

Like all good educators, he poses a test. All who knew him must let the wick of their life, which he ignited, burn as a helpful beacon to all who need aid.

If all who received the spark from Mr. Lylse Padden were to light just one little candle, what a bright world this would be."

Chapter VI

CHEERS AND CHALLENGES

The strong and healthy body must be a result of both mental and physical growth and development. Previous chapters have mentioned the variety of opportunities available on the mental side, but what about the physical? Once more, the student at Wilson is in a very enviable position if he is interested in bettering himself physically.

To begin with, the most modern facilities possible are provided in one of the finest physical plants in the South, or the country for that matter. Add to this a competent and qualified staff of instructors and coaches who have the best of material and equipment at their disposal and you have a pattern for physical growth established. All that is necessary, again, is the personal interest on the part of the individual to look for one place where he can fit into the pattern.

For those with higher degrees of skill there are six varsity sports in which the individual competes with his classmates for the honor of representing Woodrow Wilson in interscholastic competition. For the past two decades, Wilson's athletic teams have ranked amoung the best in the state. For those less gifted physically, but still interested in "letting off steam", there is a full program of intramurals as well as a variety of gym class activities.

If the individual has the urge to grow physically as well as mentally, the opportunities are always present.

The athletic program at Wilson ranks with the best in the state, and the person most responsible for its position is Mr. Ernest A. Wild, still affectionately called "Coach" by his many friends.

Coach was born in Adrian, Michigan, where he attended high school and Adrian College. He has also studied at Northwestern University, Longwood, and this past term took a course in ceramics at William and Mary, Norfolk Division. He came to Portsmouth 33 years ago as physical education supervisor in the city schools, becoming director of athletics at Wilson in 1939.

He is married, and has two sons and one daughter, all graduates of Woodrow Wilson. His interests include athletics, ceramics, and fishing, an activity that he enjoys very much every summer in Colorado, where he and his wife have built a cabin on one of the many lakes near Denver.

Many changes have come about in physical education and athletics since Coach came to Portsmouth. He recalls the time in the past when he and one assistant did the coaching of all sports and teaching all gym classes. Today, the staff numbers eight coaches and teachers. His pride and joy is the physical plant at the disposal of students and spectators. The present gym has a seating capacity of 2,500 as compared to 33 years ago when basketball was played in what is now the cafeteria at the old high school.

He summed up his feelings very simply when asked for a statement. "Wilson has one of the best athletic departments in Virginia. It is improving with age."

WILSON 32 — Oscar Smith 6

The Presidents outclassed South Norfolk, 32-6, in their season opener before a crowd of 6500 at Portsmouth Stadium.

Captain Tommy McCoy, Bobby Sher, Ernie Williams, Bob Hopewell and B. B. Hamaker went over the goal line, behind a solid blocking line. The entire team, especially the line, was praised by Coach Pete Mills for their surprisingly easy opening night victory.

Sher, tabbed one of the best halfbacks in Wilson history, scored in the opening moments on the second play from scrimmage, taking a pitch-out from McCoy and streaking 72 yards to paydirt. The Prexies held a 25-0 half-time advantage. Sher and tackle Richie Wood kicked extra points for the Prexies.

WILSON 20 — Hopewell 12

Hopewell's Blue Devils, although out-rushing Wilson, dropped their only loss of the season in a thrill-packed 20-12 game before 9,000 excited spectators at Portsmouth Stadium.

Bobby Sher, scoring on a 78 yard run in the opening seconds of play and passing to Tommy McCoy for the second score, shared the glory with McCoy, who passed to end Raymond Perry for the final tally in the fourth quarter. Richie Wood kicked two extra points in a game that tabbed Wilson as a state title threat and also set the stage for the Norview game.

WILSON 27 — Norview 7

Arch-rival and defending district champion Norview, riding the crest of a 22 game winning streak, invaded Portsmouth Stadium in high spirits, only to leave with a crushing 27-7 defeat.

Over 11,000 persons saw, for the third straight week, Bobby Sher score the first time he carried the ball, this time on a 56 yard run before the game was a minute old. He scored again in the second quarter on a 9 yard sweep. Tommy McCoy, on his way to All-Tidewater honors, went over on a sneak in the third quarter and raced around right end on the option for another touchdown in the fourth quarter. Richie Wood made good on three conversion attempts.

WILSON 32 — Washington-Lee 20

Traveling to Arlington, Wilson returned to Portsmouth with their tenth consecutive victory, having beaten W-L's Generals, 32-20.

A chilled crowd of opproximately 3,000, nearly a thousand of them from Portsmouth, saw Captain Tommy McCoy score three times and pass for a fourth tally. He scored on two plunges and a sizeable run down the sideline. The pass was to Frankie Cohn, who ran five yards for the score. B. B. Hamaker scored on a 3 yard blast in the second quarter. The flu ridden Generals were the first team to go ahead of Wilson during the season, 7-0, but they couldn't stay ahead, as Wilson led at half-time, 19-7. Richie Wood converted two PAT's for the Prexies.

WILSON 20 — Hampton 20

In perhaps the most exciting game ever played in Portsmouth Stadium, Wilson staged a fourth quarter rally to erase a 20-7 deficit and tie previously unbeaten Hampton, 20-20, before more than 11,000 spectators.

Bobby Sher made a 58 yard gallop for the Presidents' first score on his first carry of the game. After surging to a 20-7 half-time lead, the Red and White from the peninsula were white-washed in the second half by a determined Wilson defense.

Wilson burst loose with two rapid fourth quarter scores, the first coming when B. B. Hamaker climaxed a 73 yard drive by bulling over from the three. The extra point placement never went up as a mix-up in signals resulted in a damaging fumble.

The final score came on an 11 yard pass from Tommy McCoy to Frankie Cohn on a fourth down and five situation. Richie Wood's second conversion came as the stadium was rocked by the crowd's roars.

WILSON 28 — Churchland 14

A siege of flu at Durham, North Carolina, forced them to cancel their engagement with Wilson at the annual Homecoming event. Instead, the Prexies delighted a Homecoming crowd of over 8,000 by routing 28-14, new cross-town rival Churchland, which volunteered itself for the contest.

Tommy McCoy passed to Frankie Cohn for two tallies and then scored himself on a one yard sneak. B. B. Hamaker, leading ground gainer with 63 yards, scored on a two yard plunge. Richie Wood's talented toe found the mark four times. Bobby Sher, Bobby Perkins, and Raymond Perry, drew extra praise from Coach Mills.

WILSON 0 — Suffolk 0

A spongy football field with ankle-deep mud was the major factor as Suffolk's winless Red Raiders held Wilson to an upset 0-0 tie in a driving rain at Suffolk's Peanut Park.

Four times the Wilson eleven penetrated the Suffolk 20 yard line, only to lose the ball. Three fumbles, coupled with three pass interceptions, also helped to crush the Prexie chances of scoring. Slippery footing held any lengthy runs at a minimum, the longest being a 24 yard punt return by Tommy McCoy.

Several hundred Wilson supporters braved the elements to watch the contest, which the coaches decided to play only at the last moment. Fullback B. B. Hamaker was a standout, along with linemen Richie Wood, Gene "Tiny Tim" Smith, and Frank Carmines.

Offensive stalwart Bobby Sher suffered a leg injury in the second quarter that not only dealt a blow to Prexie efforts in this game, but also resulted in Sher's being unable to play further in the season.

WILSON 7 — Granby 0

Before an estimated 4000 fans at Foreman Field, Wilson staged a fourth quarter touchdown drive to top Granby's Blue Comets.

B. B. Hamaker, gaining a strong reputation as the district's best fullback, played a stellar game, gaining 129 yards and scoring the first Wilson touchdown in nine quarters of play, on a one yard plunge.

Halfback Bobby Sher sat out the game on the sideline, nursing a leg injury that was due to halt his brilliant high school career. Without Sher, the Wilson attack couldn't get started.

Outstanding for the Prexies were Kenny Raper and Frankie Cohn, and Richie Wood converted the point-after-touchdown.

Warwick 21 — WILSON 2

A Thanksgiving Day crowd of about 3000 saw the Warwick Farmers knock the Presidents, unbeaten in 14 straight starts, from the Eastern District Title, with a stunning 21-2 score.

Capitalizing on three breaks and otherwise playing a great game, Warwick became the first team to defeat Wilson in a Thanksgiving Day game since 1944. The game was played at Warwick.

Bobby Perkins knocked Warwick star Phil Webb into the end zone, and Richie Wood held him there for the Presidents' points. Fullback B. B. Hamaker was virtually the whole offense as he ground out 57 yards of the total 80 yards for Wilson in the first half, then added 47 more yards in the second half.

In defeat the following players were outstanding in their last game for the Orange and Blue: Co-Captain Richie Wood, Richard Bartlett, Bob Smith, and Bobby Perkins.

Coach Strawn took it all in stride.

Wilson's Jay Vees completed their third straight undefeated season under the coaching of Walter Galliford. The squad scored a total of 117 points while holding their opponents to 65. They won four games out of six, giving up ties to Granby and Warwick.

Outstanding for the Baby Presidents were David Williams, leading ground gainer, George Ridenour, top scorer with 27 points, and Bruce Parker, leading pass receiver. In commenting about the squad, Coach Galliford stated, "This year's team was the lightest in years, but the best-balanced backfield in a number of seasons made up for the lack of weight."

The Frosh squad was right in competition with the Varsity and Jay Vees due to the excellent job turned in by Coach Jack Ryder. The team was led by quarterback Sonny Staples, who was backed up by two fullbacks with tremendous drive, Jimmy Hendrix and Steve Hollowell.

The purpose of the team was to give the freshmen more experience before moving up to the Jay Vee and Varsity.

The 1957-58 edition of Wilson High's basketball team did a magnificent job in turning in one of the best records in the history of the school. This squad turned in an outstanding record of 19 victories against four defeats. Also added to the honors of this team was the consolation title and trophy of the Eastern District Tournament.

Seniors Tommy McCoy and Thurmond Gough served as co-captains for this squad, which was made up mainly of members of the Junior Varsity squad of 1956-57.

McCoy and Raymond Perry helped carry the team through eight successive victories before their departure from the squad at mid-term. Predicted not to do very well after their departure, the team, led capably by juniors Robert Shibley, Ronnie Davis, Butch Carto, and seniors Thurmond Gough, and Bob Smith, completed a highly successful regular season with a 17-3 won-lost record. They lost only to Granby, Norview in overtime, and Eastern District Champion, Newport News. This record was second only to the "Typhoon" in the district.

Seeded second in the Third Annual Eastern District Tournament, the President ripped through the Cradock Admirals in the quarter finals, but lost the bid for a berth in the State Tourney by bowing to Granby in an overtime thriller. In capturing the Consolation Title by beating Norview, the team was awarded the "Sportsmanship Award," presented by the Hampton Merrimac Club.

Whenever any member of the first team left the court, Coach Jack Ryder was always able to find a capable replacement from a host of reserves. Always ready and waiting for action were Jack Dragseth, Leon Bowne, Jimmy Harris, Aaron Peck, Jeff Staples, John Vaughan, Dallas Warren, and Buddy Wyatt.

Shibley was the team's leading scorer with 313 points for a 15.7 average. Second was Carto with a 14.0 average, while Davis was third with a 11.2 average.

Individual honors won by team members were as follows: Butch Carto — first team, All District Tournament; Thurmond Gough and Robert Shibley — second team, All Eastern District Tournament; Ronnie Davis, honorable mention.

In All-City voting, Shibley made the first team, and Carto and Davis gained berths on the second team.

Shibley won a second team place on the Eastern District team, and Carto earned an honorable mention.

Chapter VII

AIDS TO BETTER LIVING

In every book some chapter must be the concluding one, and, as is the case with most yearbooks, we find we have nothing left but the advertising section. What does one write about such a "dull" section of the book?

Ours, we feel, is not a dull section of the book. We are ever so grateful to the merchants and individuals here represented for their generosity and interest. We know that down deep some of them may feel just a little bit that they have made a token contribution, and we sincerely thank them for it. However, with 850 copies of this 1958 President going into that many different homes, to be picked up and leafed through by many eager hands over the years to come, maybe their contribution will turn out to be more than just that.

Whatever their reason for signing that advertising contract, the entire President Staff is most appreciative of the fact that they have played a great part in making this book possible. We hope they will continue to show their interest to the succeeding generations of Senior Classes so that they, too, can benefit from the worth-while experience of producing a book such as this.

So, dear reader, skim not through the following pages too rapidly. If you will take time to look beyond the copy on the ads, you will probably find an occasional photo.

One of the biggest aids to better living is money, and one person who has had more experience than anyone else in handling that commodity at Wilson is Mr. John Dragseth. As treasurer of the Athletic Association, he has been responsible for all finances in connection with that organization.

Mr. Dragseth was born in Meldallen, Norway, and came to the United States with his parents in 1902, settling down in Memomonie, Wisconsin. Here he attended high school and studied at State College for two years, after which he taught one year in Waterville, Minnesota. The urge to complete his work for a degree brought him back to State College. After graduation he taught for two years in Dubuque, Iowa.

Mr. Dragseth came to Portsmouth in 1928 and has been here ever since. In addition to serving as treasurer of the Athletic Association, he is head of the Vocational Department. He is married, having met his wife while both were in College, and has one son who earned a "W" in basketball this past year. After all his years of association with sports at Wilson, he had a good reason to be actively interested as a spectator.

His job consumes a great deal of time after school and week ends, but he still manages to enjoy his hobbies from time to time. These include metal and wood work, fishing, and golf. One suspects that if he had his way he would enjoy nothing more than being in a boat on one of the numerous lakes in Wisconsin.

If you are an alert young woman, you'll find an "extra special" job at the telephone company.

You'll meet lots of young people your own age . . . work in pleasant surroundings . . . receive good pay while you're being trained . . . get regular raises. And you don't need any experience!

Best of all, you'll be helping almost everyone in your community. Why not find out more about the advantages of telephone work?

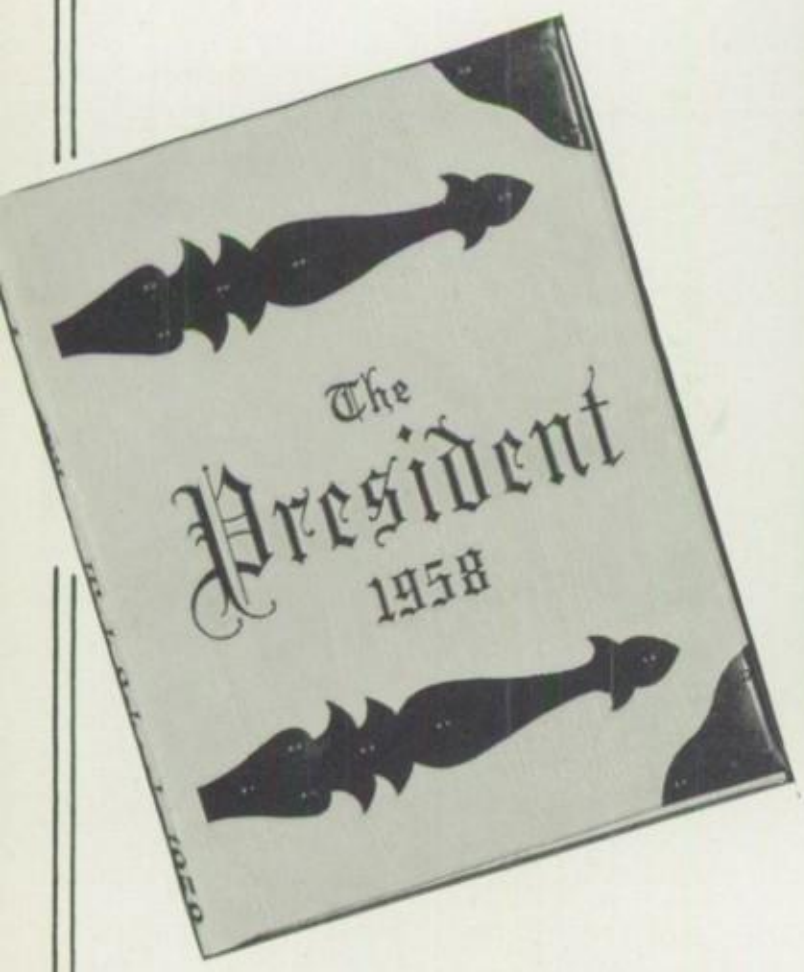
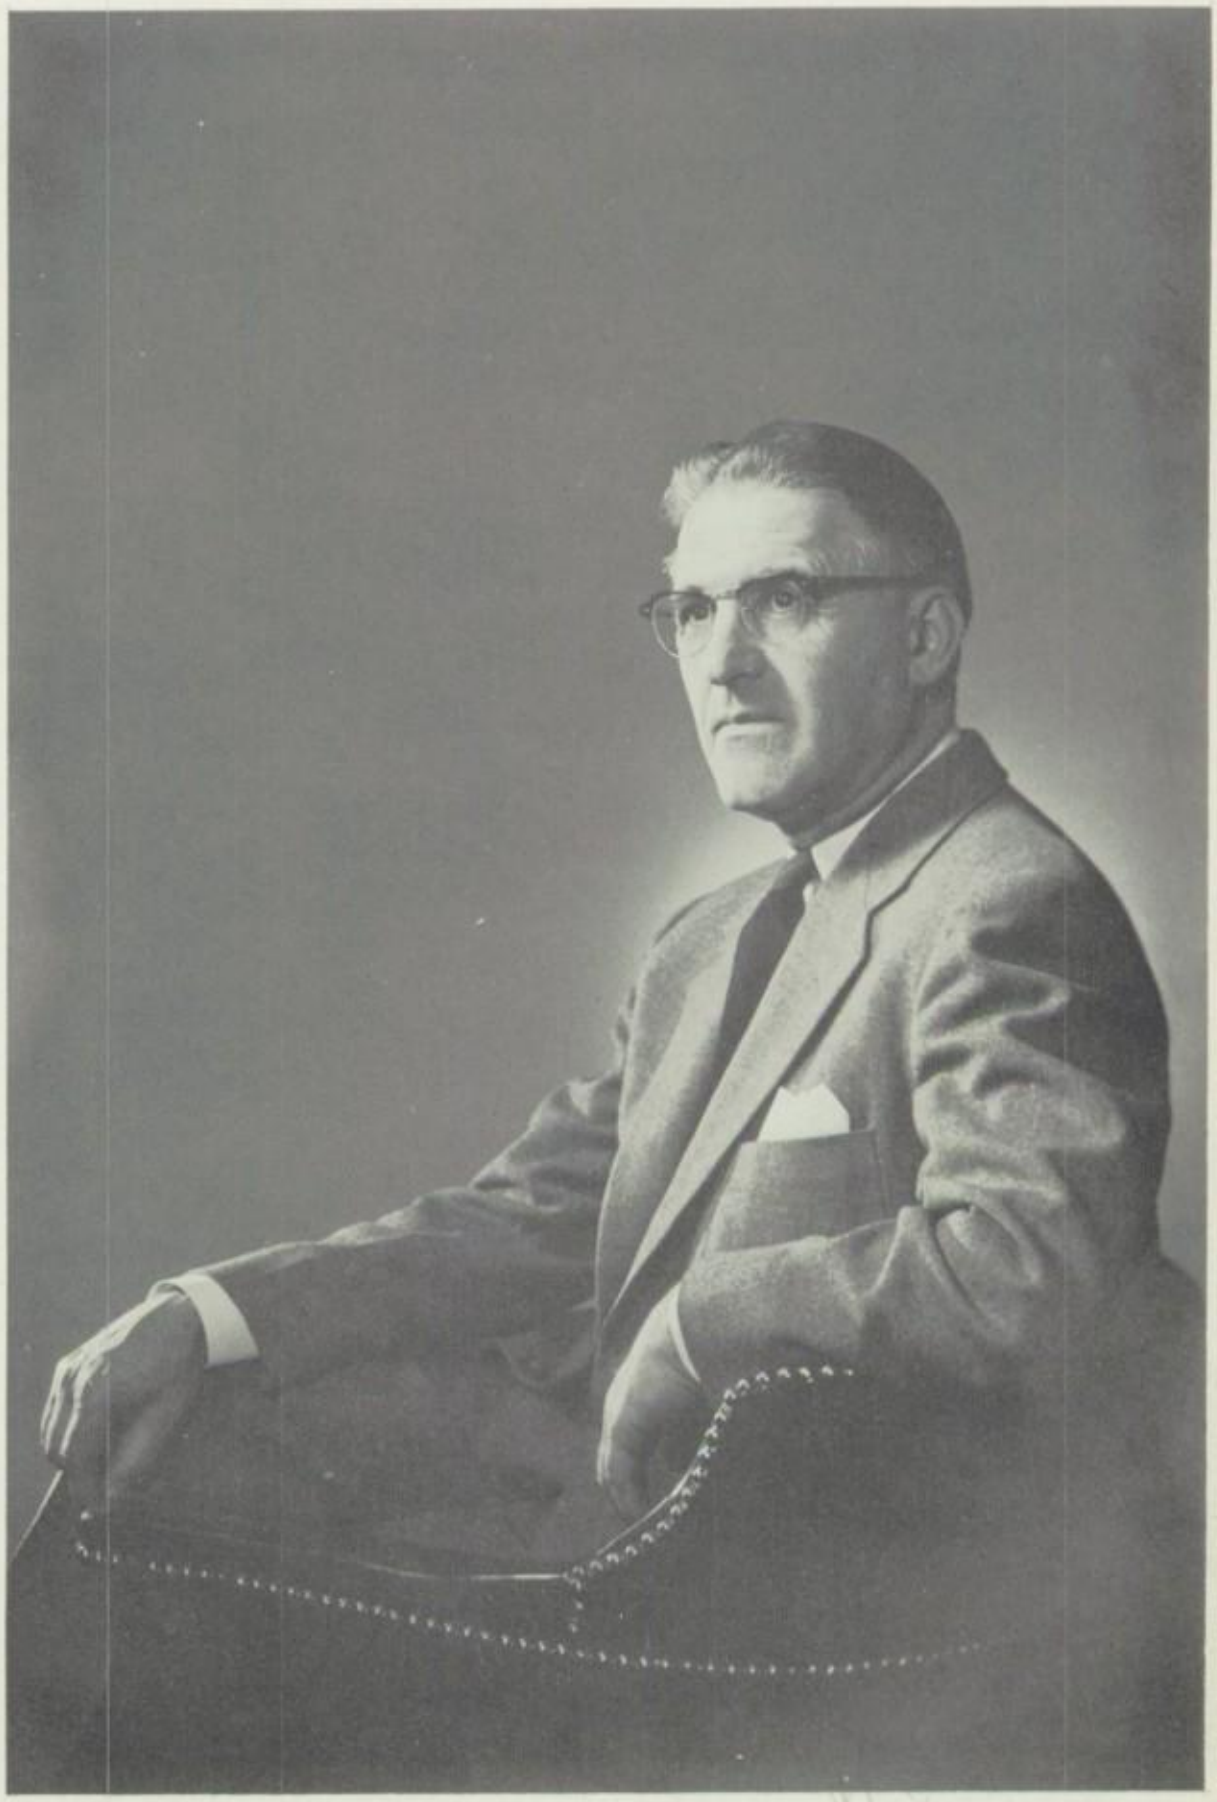
To Mr. Andrew Landis we dedicate our entire work and effort put into this book for his excellent guidance, devotion, and work in making this, the 1958 President, possible. For patience and kindness, as friend and teacher, we say, "Thank you".

The 1958 President Staff





MR. ANDREW E. LANDIS — YEARBOOK ADVISOR

"The man who causes the deed is greater than he who does it."—Talmud

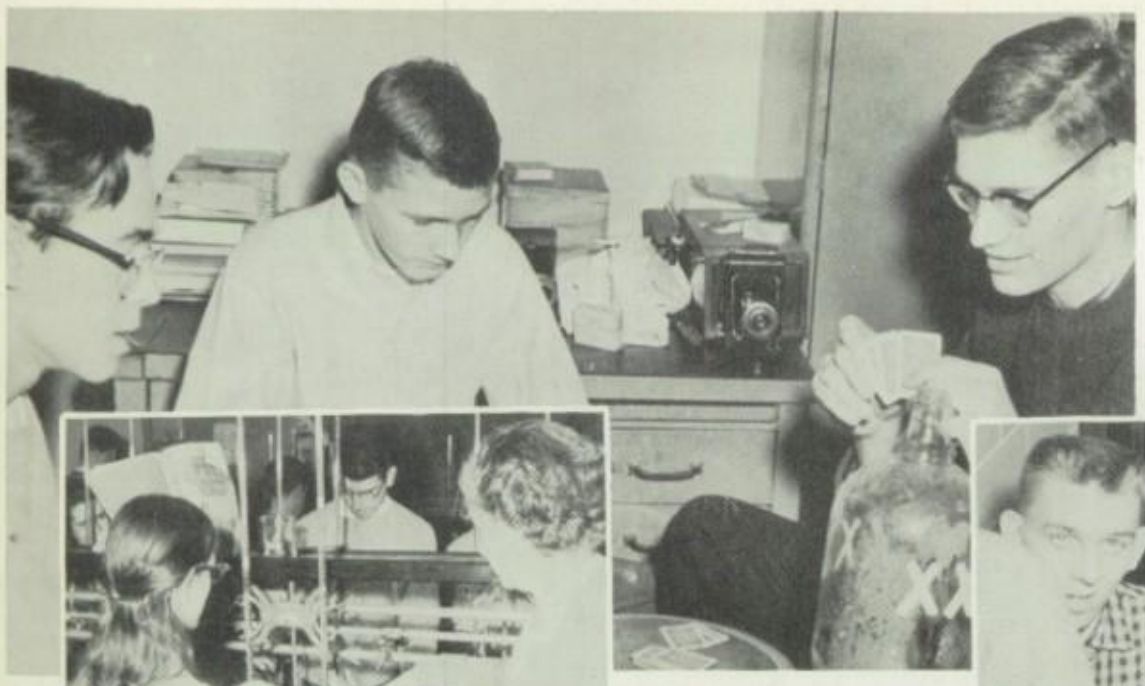
Mr. Landis, who has been advisor to the annual staff since 1958, is responsible for the success of this annual as he has been for many previous ones.

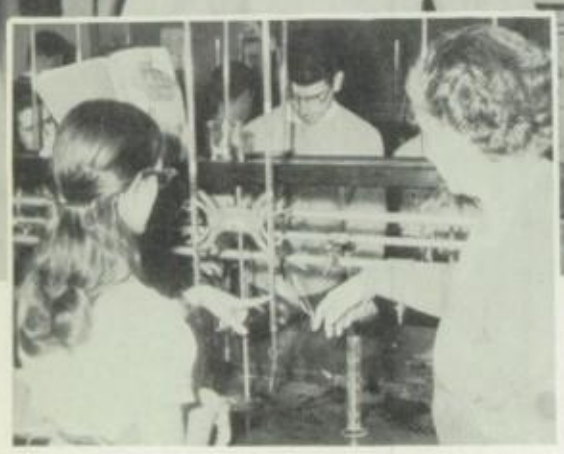
Except for the hours he devotes to teaching English and Journalism and working on school publications, he spends his time with his family, a wife, two daughters and a son, and, weather permitting, golfing.

Originally from Ohio where he attended Oberlin College, Mr. Landis came to Portsmouth and started teaching at Wilson. After several years, he moved to Churchland and taught there for two school terms, after which he returned to Wilson. This high school has greatly profitted from having so fine a teacher on its faculty and can not deeply enough show its appreciation for all he has done.

Last Flashes . . . .

Best of luck from the staff . . .





"Is this right, Mrs. Fordham?"

Three hypo experts.

Going up.

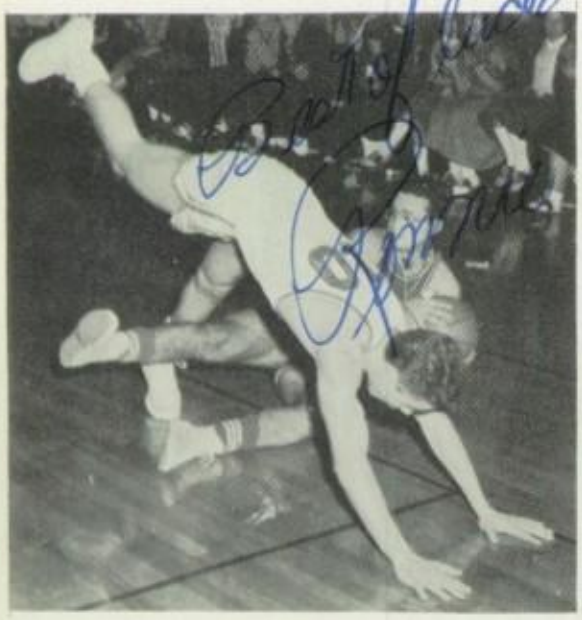
Library study corner.

Also in the library.

Ye editor at work.

Secretary hopefuls.

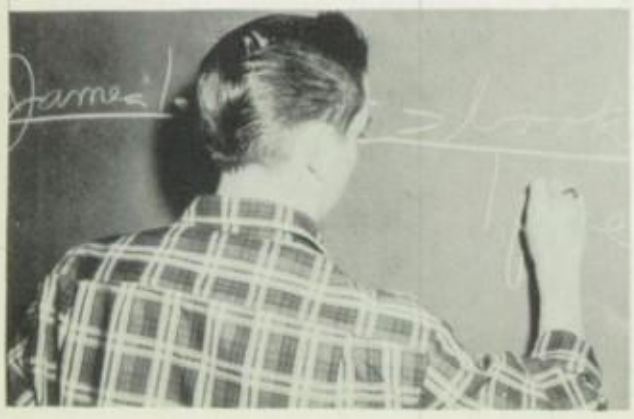
"Have your cards ready."



"What sport is that, Ronnie?"

"Oh, how I wish I was outside."

Bob, Tom, and a problem in Chemistry.



"I think this diagram is right."

"Didn't know a worm could have so many parts."
